

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF OREGON

RECORD OF CHANGES IN 12/1/13 LOCAL RULES FROM 12/1/12 PUBLICATION

Rule	Summary of Change
LBR 1002-1(a)(3)	New section provides procedures for the filing of a bankruptcy petition by an attorney in fact.
LBR 1004.1-1	New rule provides procedures for the filing of a bankruptcy petition on behalf of an infant or incompetent person.
LBR 1006-1(b)	Revised to extend the requirement for a minimum payment at the time of filing to an individual filing a chapter 11 petition. A related change is that the court will now require a $185 minimum payment with a chapter 13 petition.
LBR 1007-1(a)(1)	Revised to modify the manner in which Chapter 12 farm- and fishing-related debts are identified.
LBR 7005-1	Added applicable cross-references.
LBR 7007-1	Added applicable cross-references.
LBR 7008-1	New rule requires complaints to contain a statement as to whether the pleader consents to the judge's entry of final orders or judgment.
LBR 7012-1	New rule requires responsive pleadings to contain a statement as to whether the pleader consents to the judge's entry of final orders or judgment.
LBR 7056-1	Added applicable cross-references.
LBR 7065-1	Added applicable cross-references.
LBR 7067-1	Registry procedures revised per General Order 13-1.
LBR 9004-1(a)(7)	Deleted the prohibition on filing two-sided documents.
LBR 9010-1(e)(1)(E)	New section added to require debtor's attorneys to represent and counsel debtors as to reaffirmations. Attorneys are not required to sign the reaffirmation certification or attend reaffirmation hearings.
LBR 9011-4(b)	Revised to permit an electronic signature to be retained for documents other than those described in FRBP 1008 .

Rule	Summary of Change
LBR 9013-1	Revised to simplify objection deadlines.
LBR 9020-1	New rule sets forth requirements for a motion for a contempt order.
LBR 9021-1(a)(2)	In (A), permits an order to be lodged with the court if all responding parties have approved the form of the order. In (D), clarifies that parties should not submit proposed orders on the motions listed on LBF #9021 , as the court will enter a form order or otherwise act on the motion.